

NDF trading at Euronext Markets Singapore

Euronext FX is a leading ECN for Spot FX and Precious Metals, as well as NDFs through its Singapore subsidiary Euronext Markets Singapore. Powered by award winning FastMatch® technology, Euronext FX with Euronext Markets Singapore has matching engines in London, New York, Tokyo and Singapore. This best-in-class technology is leveraged to deliver flexible execution solutions and quantitative market data products.

Clients can trade FX NDFs through its subsidiary, Euronext Markets Singapore, a Regulated Market Operator (RMO) licensed by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS). As the first FX ECN to launch in SG1, Euronext Markets Singapore enables clients to access local Asia-centric trading partners with reduced latency. NDF liquidity pools are locally managed, leveraging the same unique functionalities and FastMatch® technology as in our Spot market.
